MARCIA SYLVESTER INSTALLED GWA

TO CHRISTY FOR A JOB WELL DONE

Our sincere thanks to Christy, Colorado's Grand Lamb, for a job well done. Christy presided over her "Lamb of Love" Session with dignity, poise and a smiling face. She has truly endeared herself in the hearts of every Rainbow Sister in Colorado and this session will always be remembered by them as "just perfect."

The Grand Lambs wore simply styled dresses in two shades of pink, the bodice a dark shade and light pink skirt. They were accented by a cummerbund of like material and a bow in back held in place with a self-material rose.

The Grand Pages wore like dresses with colors reversed. Christy presented each Page with a Shepherd's Crook. A little white woolly lamb held in place with a pink satin bow was attached at the top. The lambs and bows were made by Mrs. Sanger, Christy's mother.

The Grand Representatives, or Wandering Sheep, wore dresses of the Rainbow hues. They were very lovely as they performed their drill before each Session. We also congratulate the Wandering Sheep for the interesting reports and feel you have really given us a glimpse of Rainbow in other jurisdictions.

We do not have a report at this time from the committee in charge of "Miss Rainbow" or a list of distinguished guests but will try to have them for next issue.

Last but not least, we would thank the Singing Lambs for the beautiful music and special numbers. The Grand Choir was directed by Mrs. Dorothy Tremaine of Denver.

Again, to Mrs. Kathryn Griffith, Supreme Deputy; and to Christy, thank you for this Lamb of Love Session.

ANNOUNCING

Winners of the, "For His Kingdom" project were: Las Animas Assembly, first; Denver No. 1, second; and Silver Spruce, third. There were 126 tote bags, 25 pillow cases, 16 tea towels, 8 hand towels and 3 P.J. bags turned in. Making a total of 175 articles.

Winners of the skits for the talent show were: Littleton Assembly, first; Greeley Assembly, second; and Cedaredge, third. This was a most enjoyable evening and the Judges found it very difficult to make the selections.

PRESS CLUB PARTY

Miss Karen Eskew of Windsor Assembly presided at the Coketail party for the Reporters of the Covenant. The meeting started with a mixer, giving the girls an opportunity to get acquainted with one another. The girls decided that they wanted to continue with some kind of a service and several suggestions were made. These will be presented to Mrs. Griffith for approval and will then be published in the paper. Mrs. Helen Young conducted a question and answer period concerning the articles for the paper.

Election of new officers followed with the person giving the qualifications of the girl she nominated. Carol Tassett of Center was elected President; Phyllis Entz of Monte Vista, Secretary; and Terri Adams of Lamar, Vice-President.

The fun part of the party was a Kangaroo Kourt with the Judge and Jury dressed in British Parliamentary fashion. Various Reporters were called to the stand for not having sent in proper copy during the year. After the Jury gave their verdict, the Judge imposed a fine on the offender. By the way, the egg that the little girl pushed across the floor with her nose was a hard boiled egg and not a raw one.

TAP PARTY

The Grand Assembly Coketail Party for TAP representatives was held Thursday, June 18, at 3:30 in the west end of the Glenn Miller Ballroom. Several adult sponsors served Cokes as we entered. Last year's representatives introduced themselves and the new representatives.

Phyllis Sickler, last year's president of TAP representatives, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Ernestine Wilson, who was introduced told about the money that had been received this year for TAP, and answered questions.

Literature was distributed telling the importance of TAP and giving ideas on how to raise money for it. Election of president and secretary was held. Those wishing an office gave their qualifications and their reasons for wanting the office. Carolyn Pect of Denver Assembly No. 1 was elected president and Janet Martin from Del Norte was elected secretary.

Windsor Assembly

Another memorable Grand Session has been recorded with a registration of 1461 girls and adults and representing 87 of Colorado's 93 assemblies. With the close of the "Lamb of Love" Session we welcome a new Grand Worthy Advisor. Miss Marcia Sylvester, a member of Montrose Assembly, was installed in a beautiful installation on Saturday afternoon.

Marcia has selected for her theme, "Symphony of Service." Her flower is the Colorado Columbine and her motto, "Service before Self." The music note will be her symbol and her song, "If I Can Help Somebody." Marcia has just completed her second year at Western State and is a music major. The Rainbow Girls are looking forward to hearing some of Marcy's fine talent during the next year as she visits the assemblies.

Marcia, the Colorado Rainbow Girls clasp your hands beneath the Bow with the vow that they will keep in tune with your Key of Service.

May all God's richest blessings
Be your's along life's way.
And may He grant you happiness,
Thru every passing day.
For with his Love to guide you,
In everything you do.
Your very fondest hopes and dreams,
Will be fulfilled for you.

Installed as Grand Worthy Associate Advisor was Miss Linda Bolton of Lafayette Assembly. Linda has very ably served her Rainbow Sisters this past year as Grand Hope. Congratulations, Linda.

DEDICATION

Founders Day—July 8. In memory of Rev. W. Mark Sexson, Founder of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls and Author of its Ritual. The following poem was taken from Christy's Lamb of Love Session.

"God calls our loved ones, but we Lose not wholly what He has given
They live on earth in thought and Deed, as truly as in Heaven."

W. MARK SEXSON ASSEMBLY CONSTITUTED

Our baby assembly, W. Mark Sexson Assembly, was constituted on May 23, 1964 at the Masonic Temple in Manitou Springs, Colorado. Miss Phyllis Shipp is the Worthy Advisor and Mary Lou Gale is Mother Advisor. Our congratulations and best wishes to the new assembly.

Open Letter to Mrs. Irene L. Ellwanger Dear Mrs. Ellwanger:

This is our Love Note to you from the Grand Lamb of Love Sessions, Order of Rainbow for Girls. Yes, we all missed you this year at our Grand Assembly. Many times we would hear someone say, "Where is Mrs. Ellwanger?", or, "Is Mrs. Ellwanger going to be here?" You see, word of your return to the Presbyterian Hospital in Denver did not reach the Editor's desk until, after the paper went to press so the notice did not appear in the last issue of the Covenant. It was a lovely Grand Assembly and you would have been very proud of your two Grand Lambs, Kay and Christy, as well as of all the other Lambs who participated in the Sessions. Rainbow Lambs on the side lines were on their best behavior and very attentive. They all loved Christy just as I know they will Marcia, our New Grand Worthy Advisor. All in all, everything was taken care of and conducted in a very dignified and inspirational manner, just as we know you would have wanted it. There were plenty of "fun periods" for the girls and the weather of course, was in our favor. Many girls had never been to Boulder before so the beautiful Flatirons were really a glorious sight to them.

Just as our thoughts and prayers were with you at Grand Assembly, we know each girl has returned to her home with the same prayer in her heart for your speedy recovery.

Your room is crowded,
Well we know
With loving thoughts for you.
But—please make them
All move over—
Ours want to come in, TOO!
Lovingly,
Your Rainbow Girls and Friends

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Greetings to our Supreme Worthy Advisor, Mrs. Irene L. Ellwanger and her twin granddaughters, Debbie and Sherri.

LOVE is the brilliant Rainbow
LOVE is the sky of blue!
LOVE is the rosy dawning,
LOVE is the sunset's hue—
LOVE is the magic wonder
That God's put everywhere;
LOVE is a wish that we send too
For a very Happy Birthday to you.

THANKS TO BOULDER

Our sincere thanks to Boulder and the other Hostess Assemblies who prepared and planned the beautiful, "Lamb of Love Sessions." A special thank you to Mrs. Margaret Hascall, Grand Deputy; Mr. William Morris, Chairman of the Grand Executive Board, and to Mrs. Evelyn Littlejohn, Chairman of Housing. As you will notice in nearly every article sent in by the Reporters, everyone reported a wonderful time and a most inspirational Session.

The house lights are dimmed, the audience becomes silent. The curtains are drawn slowly as the symphony orchestra comes into view. The conductor ascends the podium and the instruments are brought into proper position. Then the orchestra begins playing, a special blend of beautiful instruments in complete harmony. Each with a special purpose and meaning.

Like the orchestra, our Rainbow Order depends on harmony, and harmony can be expressed most effectively through the medium of music. But how can we achieve this complete harmony, as the orchestra does?

Let us go way back to our teachings in Rainbow. What is the most important lesson we learn from Rainbow? Is it religion, is it hope, is it service? The greatest lesson in Rainbow, because Rainbow is based on it is Service. Without service we would not have Faith, Hope, Charity, or the six other mile-posts along our journey. For example, the trumpets are the true backbone and they carry the tune of the symphony orchestra. Thus, service must carry the tune and strength of our Rainbow symphony.

Service? Service has been defined as "the small task which most despise and leave undone." What is our task? To do some good, to bear our ills without complaining; To seek no profit, praise, or gold; To do some service day by day in helping our toiling sisters; To close our eyes to little faults of those around us; To strive to be when each day dies, some better than the morning found us; To see the merit of the cause before we follow those who preach it. This is our task; To keep our standards always high; To find our task and always do it; To place a rainbow in the sky and shape our actions to it.

Service to mankind is "God's Motto." So keep in tune with God in the key of Service.

Like the symphony orchestra, we as Rainbow Assemblies must work together like the instruments and serve to fulfill our purposes truly. Serve to the best of your ability to make our symphony a success.

Of great importance to any symphony orchestra are musicians. The musicians take their knowledge of music to make their symphony a success. We as musicians in our symphony of Service must take our Rainbow teachings and serve to make our symphony a success.

The final necessity of any symphony is a conductor. Our conductors are our Masonic and Eastern Star sponsors and our Rainbow Moms and Dads.

All of these combine to serve to make a success, for if one link were missing, there will be no complete harmony.

Today, June 20, begins our year of Service, our Symphony of Service. Our scripture, "Serve the Lord with gladness and come before His presence with a song." Psalms 100-2.

My honor station of Service gives us the hues of violet for our colors. My motto, "Service Before Self."

I have chosen as my flower, the Colorado State flower, the Colorado Columbine. Our symbol for this year will be the music note, which represents a life that is in tune with the Infinite. And last, our song, If I Can Help Somebody.

May our year, our SYMPHONY OF SERVICE, be most rewarding and pleasant.

Rainbow Love, Marcia, GWA

THE GRAND EAST

The Grand East was truly a beautiful sight to see. In the background was an enormous picture. This showed our great Shepherd, with outstretched arms, gazing at the fully colored rainbow which extended from side to side. In one hand Jesus Christ held his shepherd's staff. This is an ever standing reminder that he truly does watch and guide us always. This picture was enclosed by softly pleated curtains extending around the platform.

In the foreground on the floor the Grand East was adorned with evergreens. Hidden among the trees were several playful lambs gazing up toward the platform.

The other spot of interest was the mountain scene through which there was an entrance. It displayed snow covered mountains with a pale sky of blue as a background.

To sum this up, in one simple word, you could say, "splendid."

COVENANT LUNCHEON

Miss Roberta Lagsdon of Fort Lupton Assembly No. 88 was Mistress of Ceremonies at the Covenant Luncheon. The Fort Lupton girls had made lovely little favors in keeping with the Lamb theme and using red roses for the table. Roberta introduced a special guest, Mrs. Mildred Walek, Supreme Member of the International Order of Rainbow for Girls; Mrs. Helen Young, Editor of the Covenant; and the new Officers of the Press Club.

Miss Nancy Ross of Center Assembly presented a prize to Shari Hodgkin of Delta Assembly for having been selected as the Reporter with the most interesting and helpful articles submitted during the past year. A small dish was passed and each Reporter present was asked to put in a nickle or dime and this in turn was given to Shari as her award. This netted $4.00 even tho it looked like only pennies at first glance. Nancy and her new committees are making plans for next year and we will probably be hearing from Nancy in the next issue.

Friendship is a mighty ship
That weathers many gales,
And leaves a blessing to the world
In every place it sails.
It helps the dreary, cheers the sad,
And drives dark clouds away;
It gives a helping hand to those
Who've fallen by the way.

Friendship is a blessed ship
That's full of peace and love,
And carries sunshine everywhere,
From God's own blessed above,
And makes the world a better place—
E'en more like heaven sweet—
And helps to smooth the pathway out
For weary pilgrim's feet.

AN AUTUMN DAY

God took a bit of the sunset,
Colors bright and rare.

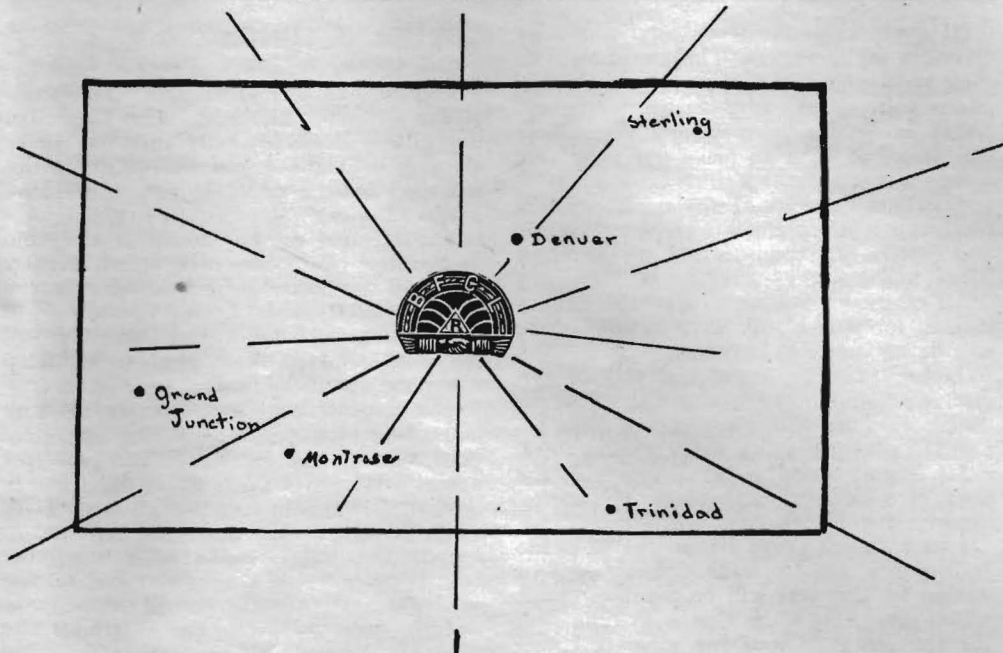

He took from the mountains a hazy blue—
Gold from a maiden's hair.

From the ocean came a ripple of jade,
From the rivers a misty gray—

He blended them all together
And made an Autumn day!

RAINBOW RAYS

AKRON

We would like to thank everyone in Boulder who was connected with Grand Assembly for the wonderful time we had there. It was a lasting experience for all who attended.

We are very proud of Miss Carol Harrington who served as Grand Page at Grand Assembly and who will be serving as Grand Representative to Rhode Island this year.

On May 23, Sue Alishouse was installed as Worthy Advisor. Sue's theme is "Light One Little Candle"; her symbol, the gold and crimson sunset; her colors, gold and crimson; her flower, the crimson carnation with gold ribbon; her song, "Light One Little Candle"; and her station, Service. Her speech was very impressive and beautiful as was her whole installation.

For our community service we sent cookies to the hospital.

On June 21, we paid tribute to our Dads by giving them a "Fathers' Day Breakfast." It was a lot of fun and very successful.

We are planning to go swimming after we attend church on Founders Day.

Connie Fletcher

ALAMOSA

Our assembly had eighteen girls and sponsors altogether at Grand Assembly. We were very proud of Diane Letey who served on the Grand Executive Board.

Vivian Greenwalt, our Worthy Advisor, has several activities planned for her term. We are going to have a dance July 10th which the girls ask the boys. Then July 12th we are to have a picnic in memory of W. Mark Sexson, our founder. It is to be held at the Masonic Park.

Our district, District No. 4, had their District Assembly June 27th in Center. We were very proud to have the Grand Worthy Advisor, Marcia Sylvester and the Grand Worthy Associate Advisor, Linda Boulton as guests. All the girls were very sorry that Mrs. Kathryn E. A very successful Father and Daughter banquet was held in honor of our Fathers. Following the banquet we had a meeting at which the Shabobs were present. At this meeting we wore our new satin robes for the first time so that the Shabobs might see what they had given us money for.

Our Covenant Reporter for last year, Joyce Eppinger, exhibited tote bags at Grand Assembly, made by the members of our assembly.

Janis Ashmore

There were four of us that attended Grand Assembly this year with our Mother Advisor. We had a great time and hope more of our assembly will attend with us next year. We want to tell Marsha how much we enjoyed her installation and wish Christy all the best of luck for her future. We sure will miss Cristy, but we'll have just as much fun with Marsha I'm sure.

Ahead on our schedule we have the rodeo, July 11 and 12. We will make a float for this parade. Last year we won second with our Rainbow float so I hope we get first this year. We will also have a pie booth to raise money.

Sue Dempsey

EVA J. ALDRICH

As the hot months roll in, we find ourselves in Dawn Norwood's term. Her installation was a big success. Dawn's colors, Midnight Blue and Moon Gold, went beautifully with her honor station, Patriotism. The next day was a tea at Dawn's house.

Early in June our assembly served a dinner for Capitol Hill No. 119, Order of Eastern Star. Later in the month we had a car wash. It proved to be fun and earn money all at once. Between sprays of the hose, we got the cars washed and dried. But Dawn's main money making project is an Ice Cream Social and White Elephant Sale to be held in August.

This term we have an extra special service project, "Rainbow Rays of Love." These are small boxes containing articles which a patient of a welfare home might need and use. Our girls will decorate the boxes and fill them with such things as kleenex, hand-cream, toothpaste and brush, etc. They will then be given to these people in the homes.

At this time my assembly would like to thank Boulder Rainbow Assemblies for their outstanding and warm hospitality. Speaking for the girls, I can truly say we really enjoyed ourselves and are looking forward to next year when we can return your hospitality here in Denver.

Sandy Cooke

FANNIE M. CLINE

There were 22 girls and 10 adults from Fannie M. Cline Assembly attending all or part of the Grand Assembly sessions this year. We came home tired, but did we have fun!

On June 21st the two assemblies in Pueblo honored our fathers with a father-daughter bowling party and supper. Our assembly won a beautiful traveling trophy which we will keep till next Father's Day; then we will bowl again to see which assembly will keep it for the following year.

We observed Founder's Day July 8th with a swimming party at the new Mineral Palace pool, and afterwards ate hot dogs around a bonfire. Our Worthy Advisor, Sharon Wilson, read the history of our founder, Mark Sexson.

The members attended services together on July 26th at the Belmont Nazarene Church, where our Worthy Advisor attends.

Plans are underway for a trip to the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo in August to round out a busy summer term.

Linda Drake

FORT COLLINS

Fort Collins Assembly No. 2 held Installation for Cheryl Jungmeyer. Her colors are pink and white, her theme is Garden of Prayer, her flower the pink rose. She also used eight DeMolay Honor Guards.

Our Mother Advisor will chaperone 7 girls from our assembly and two from Littleton assembly to the Supreme Sessions in Philadelphia. We will tell you more about that in the next issue.

Suzanne Waldron

to wish Marcia the best of luck during her memorable term.

Miss Pat Grosholz, former Worthy Advisor, chose as her project to help build a home for girls who, having been dismissed from a corrective school would have some place to go other than their original environment if they choose to do so.

Miss Linda Williams, present Worthy Advisor, is planning a bake sale for the annual money making project during the summer term.

Fort Morgan will be hosting District Assembly this year and we hope to see many of you here.

Judy Shea

FOWLER

Miss Jacque Grooms was installed as Worthy Advisor of Fowler Rainbow Assembly No. 73, Sunday, May 17th at the Masonic Temple.

At the conclusion of the installation ceremony, Jacque's parents were escorted to the East where they presented her with a beautiful gavel and she in turn pinned a corsage and boutonniere on her mother and father. In their honor was sung the song, "For You."

Jacque announced that her colors are blue and gold, her honor station is Nature, her flower is the red rose, her theme is Nature's burning flame, her motto is "Have Faith and Believe," and her symbol is the burning candle. These were encompassed in an inspiring speech in the form of an imaginary journey taken by the Worthy Advisor lead by Faith through the world of Nature. At the conclusion of the speech, her sister, Billie Lu, sang Jacque's song, "I Believe."

Jacque's plans for the ensuing term include a summer formal for the fun project and a talent show for the money making project.

Sue Taylor

GRAND JUNCTION

On the beautiful summer evening of May 23 Joyce Stewart was installed as Worthy Advisor. Her theme is HOPE, with colors of mint green and satin white and the white rose as her flower. Her emblem the anchor and her song Whispering HOPE symbolize her honor station, HOPE. Joyce's theme is carried out by her motto—"HOPE always awaits you," with the watchwords of Faith and Courage.

During her term we had an introductory tea open for the public and for anyone interested in joining Rainbow and learning about it's functions and projects. As one of her money making projects Joyce has planned a Father-Daughter Box Social and Ball Game. The girls will compete with their fathers in a ball game after which boxes of food will be auctioned off to the fathers.

For loads of fun we are going to have a Slumber Party with all kinds of food and enjoyment. At our next meeting something unique is planned: our Past Worthy Advisors will be honored and an Obligation Ceremony will be performed.

May our assembly express our appreciation and our Rainbow Love to everyone that worked so hard on Grand Assembly to make it such a success. Thirteen girls represented our assembly at Grand and we all enjoyed ourselves immensely (including our chaperones).

Our assembly is very proud of our Grand Representative to the state of Georgia, Ileen Baxter and Beverly McSpadden who received the Margaret Henning Memorial Scholarship and was installed as Grand Musician for this year.

Many new friends were made and enriched at Grand Assembly and our fellowship with the sisters of our state has deepened the Rainbow Love throughout the state of Colorado. Also to you Christy: Thank you for being such a very lovely and gracious Grand Worthy Advisor.

Thanks goes to my assembly for letting me represent them as "Covenant" reporter.

Laura Douglas

GREELEY

The last few days has found many of us relaxing after a wonderful time at Grand Assembly. A total of forty-three girls and adults from our assembly were privileged to enjoy the beautiful pagentry and ritualistic work along with fun. We all loved Christy Sanger's theme and leadership and are so thankful for her untiring efforts. Her respect and devotion to her parents was evident throughout her term. We the especially grateful for our Supreme Deputy, Mrs. Kathryn E. Griffith, and our own Grand Deputy, Mrs. Helen Young. Our assembly is truly indebted to our Mother Advisor, Mrs. Theodore Heinz, for all the work she put in to make our trip to Grand one of our most unforgettable memories.

Jill Sutter was exceptional Worthy Advisor. We all enjoyed her leadership and we were most pleased she and Greeley Assembly were honored to have her serve as a Grand Page during Grand Assembly.

Greeley Assembly won a second-place trophy during fun night for a skit entitled "A Miracle," which stressed appreciation of the American flag and a Rainbow Girl's lesson on Patriotism.

Leslie Fraker has enjoyed her year as Grand Representative to California. Diane Brown, newly appointed representative to Alaska, is already corresponding with their Grand Representative to Colorado.

We are looking forward to many more pleasant activities this summer. Sixteen Rainbow Girls will dress in formals and ride in convertibles for the "Go West With Greeley" Parade on the Fourth of July. Our Founder's Day buffet, July twelfth, will be held in the Fairy-land garden of our Mother Advisor. Diane Brown, Past Worthy Advisor, will give a lesson on W. Mark Sexson. Two other events planned are a fashion show and as our money-making project, a box supper with our dads.

Last but not least we will all try to practice Rainbow's lessons and teachings. We will endeavor to initiate worthy girls and strive to maintain our status as a large assembly in Colorado.

GLENWOOD SPRINGS

Glenwood Springs Assembly 30 has been very busy doing many things this spring and summer. Margaret Williams, who was our Past Worthy Advisor was replaced by Sharon Pilati. Sharon's song was "I Believe," her verse was the 121st Psalm. Her colors were red and white, her honor station was Faith, her symbol was the open Bible, and her flower was the red rose. Her installation was Saturday evening May 16th. Everyone seems to enjoy it more in the evening because they aren't in a hurry to get home.

As I said, we have been very busy. All of the girls worked hard on their Grand Assembly project. Some of the girls served at a Masonic Dinner.

Sharon's project this time is to sell chances on a barbeque set. The winner will be chosen July 4th at the annual tote gote races. Everyone is looking forward to working on this exciting project.

Fourteen girls attended Grand Assembly. Four girls are going to attend Supreme Assembly as well as Mrs. Irene Vanderhoof, Mrs. Elsie Fenton and Mrs. Elizabeth Summers.

HAXTUN

Linda Yost was installed as Worthy Advisor May 1964. Her colors were red and white, and her honor station was Faith. Her song, "Faith is the Key that Unlocks the Door." Her address was built around a Village of Faith, the houses in her village were the requirements for living in a Village of Faith.

Linda painted a large oil painting of her Village of Faith to use as the central point of her installation. It was very well done, and the houses were painted in the various colors of the color stations.

Seven of our girls with our Mother Advisor and one Advisory Board member attended Christy's Grand Assembly in Boulder. We were all very impressed and declared it a most successful Grand Assembly. The meetings were very interesting and the talent night program was wonderful.

Barbara Brykit, Past Worthy Advisor of our assembly, was installed as Grand Choir Director at Marcia Sylvesters installation on Saturday.

swimming party in July. I am sure our girls and their parents will enjoy attending these activities.

Her money making project for her term is selling light bulbs.

There were 31 girls and 10 adults registered for Grand Assembly in Boulder this year. We all had a wonderful time with Christy Sanger as our Grand Worthy Advisor and her Lambs of Love.

JEFFERSON

Jefferson's summer term began in full bloom when Sandra Tidwell was installed as Worthy Advisor May 23. Sandra's theme, "My Rainbow Garden," was carried out by her officers being Garden Workers, choir Song Birds, Mom & Dad of the Assembly—Chief Gardeners, and the Advisory Board, Garden Tools. Her mascot was the butterfly, her flower Yellow Iris, song, "Just A Closer Walk With Thee." Sandra's service project is helping at the Queen City nursing Home. A number of our girls put on a program at the home and each week girls help the elderly in some way.

Two of our girls, Cheryl Minor and Creta Juchem were honored by the Advisory Board for outstanding members.

June 21 was go to church Sunday at the Arvada Presbyterian Church. Rev. Lutz's sermon tied in so well with Christy's theme at Grand Assembly. It was a wonderful Benediction to her term.

"My hair is falling out," admitted the timid man to the chemist. "Can you recommend something to keep it in?"

"Certainly," replied the chemist. "Here's a cardboard box."

KREMMLING

Recently, new Rainbow booklets were passed out to each member of our assembly. These contain the "Code of a Rainbow Girl" and the songs used at each of our meetings plus those we sing during initiation. They are a great help to the new members.

Grand Assembly is a rich and fulfilling experience which no Rainbow Girl should miss. Each girl who goes gains so much by attending. Our Mother Advisor and, I'm sure, all those in Colorado wish to see more girls at the sessions each time.

Mary Haughey

LAFAYETTE

Twenty-two girls from Lafayette Assembly attended Grand Assembly where they saw one of their past Worthy Advisors, Linda Bolton, become Grand Worthy Associate Advisor. Linda has attended our assembly nearly five years and we are proud to have her represent us. Following Linda's election she was honored by a pizza party given by our assembly. One of our special guests was Christy Sanger.

The Grand Cross Banquet was given by our assembly with Charlotte Kneebone, our Worthy Advisor, acting as mistress of ceremonies. Our Mother Advisor, Mrs. LaVon Waldorf, and Mrs. Bob Bolton, of our advisory board were in charge of the banquet.

LAMAR

A dinner was served to the new Worthy Advisor, Sheila Ray, her new officers, and to Chris Bridge, outgoing Worthy Advisor, and her outgoing officers on the evening of Sheila's public installation, May 20.

Chris's theme was "Prayer Changes Things," her flower was the sweetheart rose, her honor station was Hope, her colors were rose and white, her symbol "The Holy Bible," and her song was "The Lord's Prayer."

Sheila began her term with the theme, "Love and Friendship," her flower, the pink daisy, her colors, pink and green, her symbol, "A Flower Basket of Friends," and her motto, "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Mother Advisor for both Chris and Sheila was and is Mrs. Gary Peyton, and her father, Mr. Bill Quinn, is our Rainbow Dad.

Sheila held a mock initiation on June 10. It was a learning session, and everytime anything was done wrong, the initiation was stopped and the procedure was corrected.

After Grand Assembly, Chris Bridge returned with the honor of being Grand Representative to Indiana, and Terry Adams, came back Vice President of the Covenant.

June 27th District Assembly will be held in Holly, and several of the Lamar girls will participate.

Jane Ragsdale

LIMON

Public installation was held Sunday May 17 at the Masonic Hall with Judy Boyle installed as Worthy Advisor.

Judy chose for her theme, "Angels of Peace." Her symbol is angels, her song is "Angel on My Shoulder," and blue and white are her colors. The blue and white carnation is her flower.

Mrs. Horner and five girls attended Grand Assembly. Janet Garten was a member of the Grand Executive Board. Judy Boyle will be the Grand Representative to Texas. Belenda Newsom is the new TAP representative, and Carla Horner is the new Covenant reporter. Each girl reported on one session of Grand Assembly to our assembly. All reported that they had enjoyed a very nice time, and they learned a lot.

We have taken Ridge Home as our service project. We have visited the home as a group to get acquainted with it and to see what we can do for it. The trip was very enlightening. We were given a guided tour of the home and told the many things that we, as Rainbow Girls, can do to help. We are now collecting goods, usable clothing and making knitted balls for the patients.

A total of $57.00 was netted from a walking coffee which we held, and another $36.00 was netted as a result of a food sale. As fun projects, we have planned a swimming party and a banana-split party for this summer.

LONGMONT No. 34

On May 17, Cindy Cooke was installed as Worthy Advisor. Her theme was "God's Fairytale," and her colors were yellow, coral, and white. Lonnie Vaughn sang "You'll Never Walk Alone." She has dedicated her term to the memory of her father.

Cindy's money-making project is to be a fashion show to be given near the end of her term.

At Grand Assembly held in Boulder in June, several honors came our way. Sharon Kunselman, our newly elected Faith, was selected as the sixth of all Rainbow Girls of Colorado for Rainbow Girl of the year. Virginia Hancock, junior past Worthy Advisor of our assembly, was chosen as the Grand Representative to the state of Kentucky.

Cindy's obligatory Sunday was held June 21, at the church of her choice.

MONTE VISTA

In a lovely ceremony on May 10, Miss Paula Stehwiem was installed as our Worthy Advisor. Paula has chosen as her theme, "Friendship is a Chain of Gold," her colors mint green and white, her flower the white daisy, her song "How Great Thou Art," and a golden chain as her symbol.

The Stehwiem family is very active in our assembly, besides Paula being our Worthy Advisor her father is our Rainbow Dad, and her mother is a past Mother Advisor.

Paula's summer term is proving to be a very busy one, as we have thus far initiated four new members, received several other petitions, and are now planning for District Assembly and Paula's money-making project, a "Kidnap Coffee." At our last meeting Cathy Coulter, T.A.P. representative, sponsored the sale of popcorn balls to raise more money for T.A.P.

Seventeen girls and five adults from our assembly attended the "Lamb of Love" sessions of Grand Assembly. We are all proud of Charlene Nielsen, who was installed as Grand Associate Lecturer, of Gloria Sanderson and Barbie LaRue, who were selected to present their flute-violin duet at the Grand Assembly Talent Night, of JoEllyn Jackson, who was fifth runner-up for Miss Rainbow, and of Mary Sharp, who is an officer in the State Preceptory. We also wish to congratulate Marcia Sylvester and Linda Bolton, and to wish them continued success and very best luck. I'm sure all attending Grand Assembly were inspired, as I was, by the truly beautiful work of Christy and her "Grand Lambs." Thank you Boulder for a grand, Grand Assembly.

Finally I would like to thank the members of the Press Club for giving me the honor of serving as their secretary for next year.

MONTROSE

May 4 was Linda Sandburg's last business meeting as Worthy Advisor, and she finished a very successful term with a pot-luck supper before the meeting for the girls and their mothers. Admission was charged according to the mothers' heights. Linda contributed the money made on her project to the fund to buy officers' robes for our assembly.

On May 10, Sandy Schneider was installed as Worthy Advisor, and Linda Jacobsen was installed as Faith. Sandy's theme, "Service for Others," was beautifully carried out in her colors of lavender and white, her flower, the lavender and white carnation, and her song, "One Little Candle." Her honor station was Service, and her symbol was Outstretched Hands.

Sandy's project will be a rummage sale. We are planning a reception for Marcia when she comes to visit her home assembly as Grand Worthy Advisor. Plans are under way for the annual Founder's Day picnic, which will be held this year on July 6. Our long-range plans include a float to be decorated for the rodeo parade in August.

All those who attended Grand Assembly from our assembly would like to take this opportunity to thank the hostess assemblies for the wonderful time enjoyed by them in Boulder. It was a rewarding and memorable experience for all who attended, and those of us who were not able to go truly regretted our loss. Here's a sincere "thank you" to everyone who helped to make all this possible!

We would like to give Marcia our special congratulations and best wishes for her term. We who know and love Marcia best are sure that you will soon agree with us that she is the most sincere and hard working girl you will ever meet. We hope you will join us in giving Marcia your full support and sincere prayers for her term and always.

ORDWAY

On May 10, Susan Hagens was installed as Worthy Advisor of our assembly. Her theme was "Be of Some Service"; her colors were lavender and white; her song was "My God and I"; and her honor station was Service.

The officers elected to serve with Sue are Worthy Associate Advisor, Mary Ellen Irwin; Charity, Jerry Bond; Hope, Velda Marcum; and Faith, Donna White.

We had three girls go to Grand Assembly: Jerry Bond, a Grand Page; Nancy Boyd, Grand Representative to Nebraska; and Arlene Kropf was installed as Grand Nature. The girls said it was one of the nicest Grand Assemblies they had ever attended.

On June 27, we had an "Ice Cream Social" in a local used car lot. The day was a hot one so the ice cream was welcomed. We had a good crowd, ran out of ice cream, and made a good profit. We had a lot of fun planning and working, and we were pleased with the outcome.

Carol Ann Vail

PAONIA

Our summer season was off to a jumping start with the installation of our new Worthy Advisor, Marilyn Hyink. Marilyn's colors are blue and pink and her flower is the pink carnation. She chose Musician as her honor station with the harp as her symbol. The theme for Marilyn's term is "My Rainbow Symphony," and her song is "You'll Never Walk Alone."

On June 11, Noreen Taylor, our T.A.P. representative, got up bright and early to call all of the girls in our assembly and invite them to a come-as-you-are breakfast. We sure had a group of sleepy-headed Rainbow Girls that morning. But everyone had a lot of fun and it was a good way to raise money for T.A.P.

We have decided to enter a float in the Cheery Day celebration on July 4, here in Paonia, and that is keeping us busy, now.

Everyone that attended Grand Assembly from Paonia said that they had a wonderful time and that it proved very profitable and inspiring for them. Our Worthy Advisor, Marilyn Hyink was appointed to the Grand Executive Board and Judy Swanson was Grand Page for our Grand Worthy Advisor, Marcia Sylvester.

Ann Porteus ran for Service Queen from our assembly against other girls from this district.

The banquet was quite impressive; Sandy Petre received an apricot colored French poodle, as a mascot. The installation was very interesting; the DeMolay boys were the honor guards. Sandy's colors are apricot and white; her theme "Prayer is the Key to Heaven."

Grand Assembly was very interesting and fun. I believe that everyone learned quite a lot. Christy and the Grand Officers looked lovely and all of their actions were friendly. Quite a few members out of ninetyfive assemblies attended the "Lamb of Love Sessions." Christy, the Grand Worthy Advisor's theme was "I Will Lift up Mine Eyes." Her symbol was a lamb; her colors were shades of red and gold; and her song was "Climb Every Mountain." The installation in Boulder was quite impressive. The new Grand Worthy Advisor was Marcia Sylvester, her colors were shades of lavender and her song was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow."

Kathy Boyack

Verna Nygaard was installed on June 7. Her theme was "Climbing Higher." Her song was "One God," and her colors were indigo and gold. Norma Jean Qupps was installed as Faith.

The girls from Prairie Rose who attended Grand Assembly in Boulder agree that it was one of the most memorable and impressive they have seen.

We are very proud that our own Mother Advisor, Mrs. Julia Herskind, was appointed a member of the Grand Advisory Board, and Phyllis Rice was appointed Grand Drill Leader.

Congratulations also to Margie Hanks, a Past Worthy Advisor of Prairie Rose. Our local DeMolay Chapter picked Margie as their "Sweetheart."

Verna plans to have a box social during her term.

Grand Assembly is now over, and everyone who went, especially those staying in the dorms, said they had a real nice time. I must say anyone that missed the Lamb of Love Session really missed a great time.

In our assembly three girls are planning to attend Supreme Assembly in Pennsylvania. We want to thank Christy and her father for making this possible for us.

For Father's Day we had a Father-Daughter bowling party, and afterwards, a picnic at our Mother Advisor's home.

Nancy Hooper, Worthy Advisor, is planning a church service and picnic on Founder's Day.

The TAP representative, Joyce Treba, and the Covenant reporter, Donna Head were appointed.

Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone? This was Lorinda White's theme at her installation on May 17, 1964. Her scripture was Luke 9:13. The Praying Hands was Lorinda's symbol. Her song, "Must Jesus Bear the Cross Alone," was sung by June Edwards.

The Lamb of Love Session of Grand Assembly was a Grand Success. I wish to thank Mrs. Young, our Covenant editor, for the wonderful banquet.

Our District Assembly is on August 7 and 8. We are all looking forward to it.

Until next time, may God bless each and every one of you.

RIFLE

Have you ever heard of a Sunshine Girl? A Sunshine girl is a Rainbow girl who goes around the assembly room and collects the money for the penny march. In Temple, Arizona, they have a Sunshine girl because we, here at Rifle, were fortunate to have her for a visitor.

The summer fun has begun. We girls are going to go on an all girl picnic and hike. Later, we plan on a family picnic, swim, and various money-making projects. An ice cream social and bake sale enter our plans for money-making projects, also.

Janice Hill, Worthy Advisor, will be a Grand Officer from our assembly under Marcia. Congratulations Janice!

I am sorry to report that this will be my last article to the Covenant. This past year of being reporter has been great, trying to write a good and interesting article as well as beat the deadline! I would like to thank my assembly for this opportunity to serve my Rainbow assembly even more. Joyce Sandersan, a fine up-coming Rainbow Sister, will take my place.

SILVER SPRUCE

Installation for Charnell Gregory was May 24th, with a reception afterwards. Next on Charnell's busy list was a Father-Daughter banquet, in honor of the Rainbow fathers for Father's Day. Slides of former Worthy Advisors and their installations were shown along with some scenery pictures.

July 8th our assembly is planning a fun day with the following on the agenda: First we are planning to go swimming at the pool in Steamboat Springs, after which we will have a picnic at Fish Creek Falls and then in the evening take in a movie.

Eight of our girls along with Mother Advisor, Mrs. Boddy, and another sponsor attended the "Lamb of Love Sessions," which we all enjoyed very much.

Silver Spruce Assembly would like to wish Marcia Sylvester a very successful year as Grand Worthy Advisor and would also like to congratulate Linda Bolton on her election as Grand Worthy Associate Advisor.

SPRINGFIELD

Sheila Robson's installation was a most elegant, yet simple installation. Her theme was "God's World," her song "I'll Never Walk Alone," her symbol "The Music Note," and her flower, the pink and white Carnation. It was followed by a lovely reception.

Our assembly had a swim party which turned out to be a huge success, except for the water being a little chilly, it was fine.

Our next recreation will be Deanna's "W. Mark Sexson Birthday Party," which will be a picnic in the canyons.

Ruth Wyche

STERLING

Earline Franklin was installed as Worthy Advisor in a beautiful and impressive ceremony held May 17. Her theme was "For God and Country" and red and gold were her colors. Her flower was the American Beauty Rose, her honor station, Patriotism, her song, "How Great Thou Art" and her symbol was the American flag over an open Bible.

Earline's money-making project is a traveling bake sale to be held early in July. Another of her projects is planned in conjunction with the Masons. Each Mason will have a secret Rainbow daughter throughout the year. This project will begin with a dinner for Masons and Rainbow girls and will end next spring when each Mason will learn who his secret daughter has been.

Several members from our assembly were privileged to attend Grand Assembly in Boulder. We all had a wonderful time and would like to congratulate Christy and her officers on a really fabulous Grand Assembly.

All of the girls who attended Grand Assembly found it to be very inspiring and interesting. We were very proud to receive one of the loving-cups as an award for having had no suspensions during the past year. We can all agree that Christy did a beautiful job as Grand Worthy Advisor.

Until next time, remember—"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in a setting of silver." Proverbs 25:11.

On May 16, Diane Roberts was installed Worthy Advisor of our assembly. For her theme she chose "Prayer is the Key to Heaven," her colors are blue and white, her flower the white rose, and her song "Prayer is the Key to Heaven." Diane has planned many activities for us this summer. Some of these are a hayride and a picnic with the Raton assembly on Raton Pass. One morning she had the girls down at her house for a Come as you are Breakfast, which we all enjoyed very much.

This year twelve girls and our Mother Advisor went to Boulder for the sessions of Grand Assembly. We all enjoyed these sessions very much and wish Marcia the very best wishes for a very successful and happy term.

Saturday, June 27, we went to Center for our District Assembly. We all had a very enjoyable day and wish to thank the Center assembly for their kind hospitality.

WELCOME

Now that everything has settled and become organized, our assembly has started working normally again.

First of all, on July 8th, we had our annual Founder's Day picnic. This year it was held at Elitch Gardens where we were given fourteen coupons worth $1.00 each. We all had a real good time.

The next event was a back yard outing held in our Worthy Advisor's back yard.

Next on the agenda was a friendship night when all of the assemblies nearby were invited. It was exciting to meet new and interesting people.

Last, but not least, our assembly had a swimming party. After having a whee of a time, we all staggered home nearly waterlogged.

Paulette Clark

WINDSOR

Grand Assembly is over for another summer. The girls that attended from our assembly arrived home tired, but more inspired and more determined than ever to make this year in Rainbow the best yet. It was wonderful to make so many new friendships and even better to renew the old ones.

On June 7, Lynnette Helzer was installed as our new Worthy Advisor. Her inspiring theme was entitled, "History Offers Hope." Her song, "You'll Never Walk Alone"; her colors, pink, white, and silver; her symbol, the Holy Bible; and her honor station, Hope.

The meeting before Lynnette's installation we exemplified parts of our opening and closing for the Eastern Star, and then we put on a program for them. A mother-daughter reception was held for Laurel Biederman at the next meeting. She was the Grand Representative from Colorado to the state of North Carolina. We presented our mothers with corsages after which, Laurel gave a report on what she did as a Grand Representative.

W. MARK SEXTON No. 95

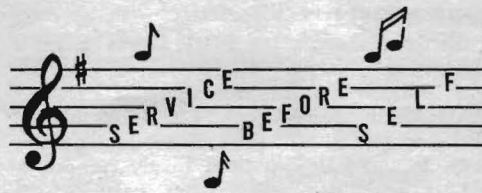

May 23rd was a busy and eventful day for our assembly. We received our constitution and charter on that day, and Phyllis Shipp was installed as our Worthy Advisor. Her theme is "Let There be Light," her colors are violet and white, and her flower is the violet. Vickie Jarvis was installed as Worthy Associate Advisor, Ruth Rudd as Charity, Annette Whaley as Hope, and Lana Cone as Faith.

Eleven girls from our assembly, accompanied by our wonderful Mother Advisor, Mrs. Mary Lou Gale, and an equally wonderful Eastern Star and Rainbow Mother, Mrs. Catherine Jones, attended Grand Assembly at Boulder in June. Of course, the crowning event for us was when we were presented the "Assembly of the Year" trophy for selling the most candy during the candy sales conducted last February and March. We kept the award a secret from those of our assembly who couldn't attend, until Monday, June 22nd. We had our meeting and initiation that night and during the "remarks for the good of the order" we unveiled our prize. We are now displaying our trophy at various prominent business places in Manitou Springs. All of us enjoyed Grand Assembly and feel those responsible for organizing such a large affair are certainly to be complimented. We thought our rooms on campus were just perfect—and the food delicious!

JUST THINKING

I often wonder why people do not make more of the marvelous power there is in kindness. It is the greatest lever to move the hearts of men that the world has ever known—greater by far than anything that mere ingenuity can devise or subtlety suggest.

her and sung. Marcia then gave a short but very impressive speech on, "I Am An American," followed by a few remarks from Linda Bolton.

The District was very proud to have so many distinguished officers and guests at our District Meeting. The Assembly paid a standing tribute to Mrs. Kathryn E. Griffith and her mother, Mrs. Ellwanger.

The world is not so big, dear friend
That we can't fill it, from end to end.
With service, hope and happiness,
And all the joys of friendliness.

Friendship Is A Chain Of God

I have a wonderful friend; I have never seen this friend in person, but I can talk to him. He is kind, gentle, and understanding and is always around when I need him. My friend is called God.

One night when I was talking with God, he told me that he was worried about the people on earth. "These people," he said, "are so occupied with their own problems, that they hardly ever talk to me anymore. What's worse, is that these people are even too busy to say a few kind words to their neighbors and fellowmen. I wish, he continued, that my children would come to me; I could help them. Sometimes on Sundays my hopes soar way up to heaven's roof when I see the church pews filled, but after a few minutes, I see that most of the people are in church in body, not in true religious spirit. What are we going to do?"

Later the next day God's words came back to me. What are we going to do? The answer to this question lies within everyone of us. God gave us this world, and probably someday he will take it away, but what we do with it in the meantime is up to us. There are not just a few important people who keep this world going. Every person in every country, you and I, must do this.

We can make our world survive thru friendship. Friendship is a chain of God and each link in God's chain is a person who in some way helps other people; or who is always striving for brotherhood and equality. Do you want to be a link in God's chain? You can be; it is very simple. There are just two things that you must do.

First: Be a friend to anyone who needs a friend. As stated in the poem, "The Art of Friendship," quote, "The first step in the art of friendship is to be a friend; then making friends takes care of itself." Remember this one thing; Friendship starts with love and ends with service, just like the color stations of our assembly. Show a little love to your neighbor and help him when he needs you. These acts of friendship strengthen the chain and make it unbreakable.

The second thing you must do to become a link in God's chain comes naturally with friendship; put others before yourself. A person's own problems seem very small when he tries to help others with theirs.

These two things, being a friend and putting others first, create a true friendship, and they put us a step closer to the friendlier world that our wonderful friend, God, dreams of for his children.

God created small, beautiful things such as the daisy, and I believe that he wants us to be a little more like the daisy. He wants our lives to be full of sunshine and happiness, but he also wants us to spread some of his happiness around. Remember this final statement: Happiness adds and multiplies as we divide it with others.

"FAITH UNLOCKS THE DOOR"

The golden sun, filtering through the green leaves of the towering trees, formed a pattern of interlocking designs on the cool grass of the forest floor. Tiny flowers peeked through the grass, while the songs of the birds and the rustling of the wind mingled peacefully in the soft breeze. A sparkling stream danced over the rocks as it continued its endless journey into the horizon. Over the crest of a hill, a young girl could be seen entering this peaceful forest. As she continued to follow her pathway, she looked into the clear blue sky and saw a Rainbow crowned with fluffy clouds.

As she continued on her journey, she realized that her path was gradually leading her uphill. She continued walking for some time, and she was not aware of the darkening of the sky. Great storm clouds, covering the entire sky, hid the sun from view, while the soft breeze changed to a rough wind. The tops of the mountains and the Rainbow were quickly hidden from view. Blinding flashes of lightening tore through the sky, and deafening claps of thunder sounded around her. As she stumbled and fell along the pathway, she felt fear tugging at her heart. Suddenly she felt a strong but invisible hand take her hand, and she realized that she was not alone. Her Faith led her up the mountain and through the storm. As she walked with Faith, the sun gradually appeared from behind the dark clouds, and the faint rays of a beautiful Rainbow could again be seen.

Upon seeing the radiant Red ray, she remembered that because of His great love for the world, God gave the greatest gift of all, His Son. Religion's Orange ray reminded her that God was always beside her. The Yellow ray of Nature symbolized the great out-of-doors, and she was reminded that God had made the beautiful earth on which she lived. Immortality's Green ray reminded her of the pine tree which never dies; and, that it was the Master of Life who said "Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die." The Blue ray of Fidelity reminded her that she must never violate her promise. With Patriotism's ray of Indigo, she remembered that she was very fortunate to live in this free country. The last ray of the Rainbow was Violet, and she remembered that she must always help others through her Service. As she had continued to climb the hill, each ray had grown brighter, until she saw before her a brilliant Rainbow. The clouds no longer hid the mountains or the Rainbow, and as she gazed at this beautiful Rainbow, she saw a large golden door at its end. She then remembered that Imortality was the open gateway of life, and if she followed her pathway, and held firmly to the hand of Faith, she would eventually reach this door. The door appeared as a golden crown on the mountain, and it was her end of the Rainbow. She also remembered the great Faith of a tiny mustard seed. She knew that such a Faith could be her key to unlock the door.

Faith is a singing in your heart,
A strength for each new day.
A willingness to do your part,
A sureness when you Pray.

Faith is knowing that after dark
A brighter day will come
A spirits' life . . . like the lovely lark,
And Peace when day is done.

IN MEMORIAM

Deep sadness descended upon the Irene L. Ellwanger Assembly on April 18 with the sudden passing of one of its dearest members, Susan Seal.

Susan was a devoted Rainbow Girl from her initiation into the Order on May 24, 1958.

She served with dedication for six years, exemplifying in her daily life the true concepts of our beautiful Order.

As a designate to the Grand Cross of Color, Susan received her degrees at Grand Assembly in 1961. Thus, every member of her family was a master of the Grand Cross of Color.

When the Irene L. Ellwanger Assembly was instituted, August 12, 1961, Susan became a charter member and served as its first Worthy Advisor. She conducted her duties with great poise, understanding and efficiency, and won the respect and loyal support of her assembly.

Rainbow's enrichment of Susan's life radiated to others. Her motto during her term as W.A. "Happiness is not perfected until you share it with someone"—had profound meaning to her.

The love she leaves in the hearts of her Rainbow sisters and to all others who knew her shall never die.

And so we say, Susan, you are not gone from us, you are just away—until we meet again.

IMMORTALITY

It's my belief
That each created soul
Is given by God a predetermined goal—
A reason for its being;
Then why should we fear death?
If our assigned task
Is best fulfilled within some other world—
God still knows best.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The sound of music is the sound of infinite harmony. It is the speech of the Angels; and the joy of every heart. Music is present everywhere; it is there in the darkest moments and it is there to greet us when we have reached our goal. We need not look for music but just open our ears for all sounds of the earth are music.

My life is composed of a symphony; it has many different parts and each has a meaning of its own. The first part of my symphony is the melody telling of love; the love of home, family, and friends, and the love of one God. Love is eternal and lasting; love is in everyone's heart. The second part of my symphony is religion; religion is my faith and I praise God for his divine guidance. Through the Church I find many melodies of our Saviour and his miracles. The third phrase tells of nature and where is there a better place to find song. All out of doors sings to the people and encourages the Children to romp and play. It is in the out of doors that we find God's promise to the world—the rainbow. Now I turn to a darker song—the song of Death, but through death we find a great reward, Immortality, through love we find God, through God we find religion and through religion we find immortality. Now my life's symphony approaches a phrase which is very important in not only a young girl's life but should be practiced by everyone. This melody tells of fidelity. It is essential to be loyal to everyone I met for first a person must have faith in what one does and his character and then friendship follows. Thinking of fidelity, my mind turns to my Country and the stars and stripes. Patriotism marks a person, for if I see someone being disrespectful to the flag which represents our country, I know that a person would not value anything worth living for. And now we come to the last melody in my life's symphony, that of service. Service offers to me the way of life worth living and through service I know that I can find happiness for myself and for others. If I could do for others as much as people do for me in one day I know that I would have lead a successful life and my symphony would end in beautiful harmony.

So you see music surrounds us and we can not take one step in life's road without finding music, for all sounds of the earth are music.

"All sounds of the earth are music,
Songs that any of us may hear,
For the sky and the earth and the waters,
Sing a melody, sweet and clear,
The wind and the rain and the silence,
Their familiar symphony start—,
And the fluted laughter of children,
Can ring bells in a troubled heart,
The music of family voices,
As flower notes rise from the sod,
Ascends like a loving hosanna,
Go the Master Musician—"

DO NOT STUMBLE

Do not stumble
Though the path be dark as night,
There's a star to touch the humble
Trust in God and do the right.

HUMILITY

Trees that, like the poplar, lift upward
all their boughs, give no shade and shelter whatever their height. Trees the most lovingly shelter and shade us when, like the willow,
the higher soar their summits, the lowlier
droop their boughs.

PRAYER

May God be praised for storms of life
And for temptations, trials, and strife—
For storms make sunshine seem much brighter,
And after darkness light seems lighter.

SERVICE

The joy of doing all things well
Is multiplied by two,
The blessings the receiver gets—
Reflect right back, on you.

There's a wealth of joy in serving
When you know some cause if just;
There's a happiness in sharing
Love and Service where we trust.

Let your hands be ever eager
For a service right and true,
And the blessings you are weaving
Return, multiplied, to you.

For whatever deeds need doing
Make their plea to earnest minds;
While with helping hands so willing,
Greater satisfaction finds.

Service is living, each in his way,
Service is giving, and showing the way.
Service is action, blended with love
Fruit of affection, blest from above.
Service is sharing, for hunger and thirst, Never comparing, nor measuring first;
Service for others, a wonderful creed,
Where sisters and brothers can share thought and deed.

RADIANT COLORS

Suddenly they appeared,
The dark gray clouds on high,
And with them came a crushing fear
Engulfing the entire sky.

With deafening cry, the wind
Roared through the helpless trees
All who touched its outstretched hand,
Its icy fingers could freeze.

Lightening tore into the heavens
And rent a gash so deep
That rain gushing forth in torrents
Woke all who dared to sleep.

Slowly, faintly, steadily appeared
The seven Rainbow colors
Giving Faith for the present darkened day
And Hope for future others.

At its base, the sun shines bright,
Lighting the blackened sky,
Forms an imaginary Pot of Gold
Which money can never buy.

Then in the mind's eye
A Dove of Peace appears
To remind us God's covenant
Has continued through the years.

Each Rainbow forms a protective arch,
Binding earth and eternity,
Continually its radiant colors glow
Crowning high mountain's majesty.

MY CREED

To do good and be a blessing to others, especially to those who are in need of the special help I can give.
To overcome what is weak and lowest in myself and seek to combine the best and the loftiest.
To eliminate the false and ugly and search for the true and beautiful.
To meet all conditions of life with a smile,
poise, courage, and strength.
To never blame anyone for my misfortunes.
To harm no one by thought, word, or deed,
for whatever I give out will return to me.

I do not know what your destiny will be,
but one thing I do know: The only ones among you who will be happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve.
To give real service you must add something which can not be bought or measured with money—that something is sincerity and integrity.
