BUILDING A WORLD

By Merall Sherif

We are building a world that gives girls more than we were given by believing in them.

For it is not to give women a voice only to allow them to speak for themselves.

We are not women who measure ourselves by the underestimations of others.

And this is Resolution 48 - the merciless continuum of time.

Whereas women are the schoolhouses of our humanity.

Whereas women are the architects of our communities.

Whereas women are the prophets of our potential.

Therefore it hereby be resolved that we as women refuse to ask permission.

To be present.

To be excellent.

Instead we ask with persistence.

We stand together without division.

We do not apologize for taking up space instead we make room for company.

We make a place for the next dreamer, schemer, renegade, quest dweller, storyteller, trail blazer, innovator, game changer.
